

Information about Octel Amlwch in Anglesey Archives

W/MAPS/138

1968

PLANS AND DRAWINGS: Landscaping and improving the appearance of that portion of land owned by Associated Octel and Co. Ltd. which bounds Amlwch Port. Includes Report.

WM/1344/40

[c. 1970]

Photograph: Octel site looking towards Amlwch port, mona mill is seen near the centre.

WM/1344/47

[c. 1970]

Photograph: Octel with shell site at Amlwch in background and Mona Mill on the left.

WM/1344/26

[c. 1970]

COMPUTER PRINT: Grid ref. 4551935. View from high ground looking over the entrance to the harbour. Significant elements of the Octel plant. Screened by the bunker tanks.

WM/1373/13

1986 Aug. 6

LETTER: Alan L. Bain, Director of Law and Administration Ynys Môn Borough Council to Mr. B.J. Hughes, 117 Welbeck Ave., Bedgrove, Aylesbury, Bucks. thanking him for his letter re. Amlwch Freighter. He encloses a copy letter from the Works Manager of Associated Octel showing that the matter was already well in hand.

Attached:

COPY LETTER: Associated Octel Co. Ltd., Amlwch to A.L. Bain thanking him for his letter and article by B.J. Hughes. A new British Rail Locomotive is to be names 'Amlwch Freighter' to mark the long term association between British Rail and Associated Octel. The ceremony is to take place at Amlwch Works on 3 September 1986 before an invited audience.

WM/1865/76

1999 Sep.

PAGE from ENDS Report 296 reporting the fine of £260,000 under environmental legislation, of Associated Octel for a major release of bromine from its former Amlwch plant.

Photocopy.

WM/1865/168

2004

NEWSLETTER: The Fugro Robinson Reporter including an article on Thomas Midgeley junior, whose work with Tetra Ethyl lead led to Octel's work in Amlwch.

WM/2205/8

1975 - 1983

FILE: Articles and leaflet, Associated Octel, Amlwch.

WM/1865/446

2006

COLOUR PHOTOGRAPH: Water tower, Octel/Great Lakes, Amlwch. [Closed in 2006].